

Sales Support Employee | (French Speaking)

Location: Venlo, The Netherlands
Company: Innoveins Seed Solutions

Are you commercially minded, communicative, and driven to support customers and sales colleagues? Do you speak French and enjoy working in an international environment? Then we are looking for you!

About Innoveins Seed Solutions

Innoveins Seed Solutions is an innovative and internationally oriented company active in the seed industry. We are passionate about seeds, strong customer relationships, and delivering reliable solutions to our partners and customers. To strengthen our commercial team, we are looking for an enthusiastic Sales Support Employee – French Speaking.

Your role

As a Sales Support Employee, you are an important link between our customers and the sales team. You make sure that commercial and administrative processes run smoothly and that customers receive professional and timely support.

Your responsibilities include:

- Supporting the sales team with day-to-day commercial activities
- Maintaining regular contact with French-speaking and international customers
- Processing and following up on orders, quotations, and customer requests
- Coordinating with colleagues regarding availability, delivery, and customer requirements
- Keeping customer and sales information accurate and up to date
- Proactively following up on open actions and identifying commercial opportunities
- Contributing to a high level of customer satisfaction

Who are we looking for?

We are looking for someone who enjoys taking responsibility and getting things done. You communicate easily with customers and colleagues and know how to keep an overview in a dynamic environment.

You:

- Speak French fluently; good English skills are required
- Are driven, proactive, and commercially minded
- Have strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Are customer-oriented and service-minded
- Work accurately and in a structured way
- Enjoy working as part of an international team
- Have experience in sales support, customer service, or a commercial role
- Experience in the seed or agricultural sector is an advantage

What do we offer?

At Innoveins Seed Solutions, you will join an ambitious and international company where initiative is appreciated. You will have the opportunity to contribute to the growth of the business while developing yourself in a commercial environment.

We offer:

- A varied position with international customer contact
- A professional, informal, and entrepreneurial working environment
- Room for personal development and initiative
- A close-knit team with short communication lines
- Competitive employment conditions

Want to join our team?

Would you like to become part of Innoveins Seed Solutions and help us strengthen our relationships with French-speaking customers? We would love to hear from you. Send us your cv and short motivation to:
